The Menard County Public Building Study Group (PBSG), an advisory board appointed by the Menard County Board of Commissioners, met on Wednesday, September 2, 2020 on the second floor of the Menard County Courthouse located at 102 South Seventh Street, Petersburg. Menard County Commissioner Bob Lott, Menard County Commissioner Ed Whitcomb, PBSG Member Joe Hemberger, PBSG Member Dan Ortgessen and PBSG Member Steve Ozella were in attendance. County Coordinator Dara Worthington was also in attendance.

PBSG Member Ozella called the meeting to order at 6:30 PM.

Commissioner Lott made a motion to approve the August 5, 2020 meeting minutes. Commissioner Ed Whitcomb seconded. Motion carried.

No guests were present to address the board.

Senator Bill Brady's Capital Bill was discussed as it relates to a bid from Arizona Tile for flooring for the courthouse. PBSG member Steve Ozella will have the representative come to the courthouse again for measuring and better identification of areas. This will be placed on the September 28 regular board agenda for possible action.

No attention was needed at Animal Control.

PBSG Member Ozella reported that Wills Milling will be at the courthouse on County Coordinator reported that the roofing project for the nursing home should start at the end of August with the hope that it will be cool since the air conditioner units will have to be removed for the work to occur. The shower room work is on hold due to COVID-19.

A brief discussion was held on a structure for family visiting as a result of COVID-19. County Coordinator Worthington reported that Bob Haerr of Heritage Operations did not want to proceed with anything on the south end of the building until the following year. Sunny Acres Nursing Home Administrator Sarah Yoder had presented an estimate for a structure to be built between Countryside Estate and the nursing home. It was reported that Menard County Commissioner Jeff Fore had expressed an idea about construction of several Amish built outbuildings.

Having no further business, the meeting adjourned at 7:30 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

Dara Worthington
